

Sentences in 3 verb tenses 1:

Infinitive, Present continuous & Simple past

What to do:

- 1) What does the verb mean in Norwegian? Find out and write it down. (Bruk ordbok hvis du ikke vet det fra før.)
- 2) Put the right verb tense in the right sentence. Make sure you use am/is/are the right way!
- 3) Write the sentences down in your writing book.

1) to want = _____ in Norwegian

to want - am/is/are wanting - wanted

Last year my little brother _____ a spider for Christmas.

Is it wrong _____ cookies for breakfast?

My dad _____ me to help him right now.

2) to use = _____ in Norwegian

to use - am/is/are using - used

I want _____ my special trick to win this game.

I _____ my special trick right now!

Yesterday I _____ my special trick to win a game.

3) to work = _____ in Norwegian to work - am/is/are working - worked

I _____ with English right now.

Yesterday evening I _____ hard with math.

I like _____ with my friends at school.

4) to call = _____ in Norwegian to call - am/is/are calling - called

My aunt _____ me yesterday.

I _____ my mum now.

I would like to borrow your phone _____ my dad.

5) to try = _____ in Norwegian

to try - am/is/are trying - tried

Emily _____ a new jacket right now.

Jane _____ to be nice to the new girl in class yesterday.

I would like _____ your new jacket because it is so cool!

6) to ask = _____ in Norwegian

to ask - am/is/are asking - asked

I hate _____ my parents for money.

Four weeks ago Rick _____ Zoey to marry him.

I _____ my dog to fetch a stick right now.

7) to need = _____ in Norwegian

to need - am/is/are needing - needed

We _____ some help with these sentences, teacher!

This morning I _____ four cups of coffee to wake up.

It is difficult to make a sentence with _____.